

Dan Turner

Dan is a 1987 Carlisle graduate where he was a four year Varsity letterman in baseball and a 3 year Varsity letterman in football and basketball. He was all SWBL for four years in baseball and 3 years in football. Danny was "All State" in baseball and "All Dayton area" in baseball and football. He was SWBL "player of the year" in baseball and football. He was also the quarterback for the first league championship football team, which went to the OHSAA State Playoffs. Dan was the recipient of the Virgil Davis Award, CHS Citizenship Award, Free Press "Athlete of the Year" Award, and Dayton area "Player of the Year" Award during his high school career. Dan signed a full scholarship at Iowa State University for baseball.

At Iowa State Dan was a 4 year letterman where he was team captain his senior season. He was "All Big 8 Conference" his sophomore and junior seasons. He set a school record in single season and career appearances, and has the "Big 8" save record.

Danny has worked for 22 years in the Carlisle Local School District and during his tenure he has coached Jr. High football and was the Head Varsity Baseball coach for 9 years from 1998-2006. During those years, his teams acquired 2 league titles, 5 sectional titles, 1 district title, and 1 regional final appearance.

Dan was named "SWBL Baseball Coach of the Year" 3 times as well as "Miami Valley Baseball Coaches Association Coach of the Year" in 2003. Twenty-two of his former players have gone on to play college baseball. Dan was Athletic Director at Mechanicsburg Schools for 2 years from 1994-1996 before coming to Carlisle. He was hired by Carlisle Schools to serve as Assistant Principal in 1996. He currently is the Principal at Chamberlain Middle School. Dan is married to Carlisle graduate Sonya Turner; they have two children that are Carlisle graduates Alec and Ryleigh Turner. Dan is the Son of Danny and Rose Turner.

